11 Aug., 1924

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of 3rd July respecting your copy of Newton's 'Principia,' if you are desirous of selling it I would advise you applying either to Bernard Quaritch (11, Grafton Street, W.1.), who is the leading antiquarian bookseller, or if you contemplate selling it by auction, to Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge, 34, New Bond Street, W.1.

Yours faithfully,

R. F. Sharp.

Acting Keeper.

Bruce Smith, Esq.
